NOTICE!!

ON 7th or 8th inst. two horses were taken from this farm, and supposed to have been taken to some of the lower counties, or somewhere near Raleigh. One an old sorrel of medium height and size, badly rubbed, with a swollen left hind foot, and movement and shod only in front. The other a young dark iron gray, save back, white spot in forehead, small and quite thin.

A reward of Twenty-five dollars will be given by the undersigned, for the return of the above described Horses, and Twenty-five additional for the apprehension of the thief.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1870.

INFAMOUS JIMMY BOYD.

The apology made by the friends of James E. Boyd, for his treachery and perjury, is that he was scared and terrified into his confessions. If Jimmy was not innately base how do they account for his subsequent conduct?

His card was not a confession of crime and penitence for its commission, but a political card, changing front and going over to the enemy on the eve of battle. He states that he became a candidate to put down the very men who nominated him. This is infamy worthy of John Poo', his great prototype, who authorized Senator Doolittle to say in open Senate, that he was a member of a rebel Legislature to embarass the Confederacy, which he had sworn to support.

Jimmy said in the confessional card, which Holden wrote for him, that he knew nothing against us. Again he said he knew nothing against any person. Yesterday he swore he knew it from Dr. Moore, who saw them, that there were certain persons who went to kill Shoffner. When did Jimmy tell the truth, yesterday before Judge Pearson, or before Holden's inquisition, when his military commanders were hanging up witnesses by the neck? We do not remember talking with Boyd at Hillsboro beyond the ordinary conversation common when we chanced to meet. As to telling him what the Ku Klux were to do, we know to lies as he has confessed. We never knew what they intended to do. We never talked with any one knowing him to be a Ku Klux. There is hardly a man or boy in the county of Orange, who has not heard us denounce Ku Klux on the stump and in private conversation. No man ever heard us say a word of encouragement to them in public or private. We could not have told Boyd what we never knew ourself. He lies and is of the devil, the father of lies. We would not believe him on his oath about anything. He stinks in the nostrils of every honest man. Let him be shunned and let his vile name go

"Down to the dust whence he sprung
Unwept, unhonored and unsung."

THE UNHOLY HOLDEN INQUISITION.

This unrighteous tribunal still holds its secret sessions. Bailey, Boyden, Badger, Boyd and boy-and fleur Long, attend upon it.

About 10 o'clock last Saturday night they put Mr. R. M. Stockard first upon the stand and then upon the rack. Rotating Richard examined him, asking Mr. Stockard if he knew anything of the guilt of the Ku Klux, or men who had been arrested.—He replied, "No, I do not." That's a lie, said the Rotator. The witness was dismissed until Monday after Judge Pearson's Court adjourned.

Present at the Court of inquisition, Boyden, Baily, Boyd, Badger and Long. Boyden, after a strong effort to make his hard face look pleasant, said, now Mr. Stockard, if you will tell all you know on others, I care not what crimes you may have committed yourself, there shall not be a hair of your head hurt. The Governor will pardon any man who will inform on others. Mr. Stockard said, "I know nothing to tell." About two hours after this inquisition Stockard was arrested with a State's warrant, issued by Judge Pearson.

Does not this exhibit these inquisitors in a new light? What better is it, to extort confessions by hanging and choking or threats, than by such means?

A WOMAN SHOT AT.

Mrs. Maria Foust, of Alamance, is a very inoffensive old widow lady. Until the advent of Kirk, and the reign of Holden, she sat in peace and plenty under her own "vine and fig tree."

One day last week she spied Kirk's men in her orchard and corn patch helping themselves. She hailed them, and they replied with musket shot. Mrs. Foust was not struck. Is this keeping the peace, as Judge Brooks enjoined upon Kirk when he refused the motion to bind him over. We tell Judge Brooks the peace of the State demands that Kirk should be where Burgen is.

If Judge Pearson, Victor Barringer, Solomon Pool, Nathaniel Boyden, Samuel F. Phillips, General Dockery, Richard Badger, Willie D. Jones, Billy Smith, Curtis Brogden, Tod. R. Caldwell, William Scott, Col. Bynum, Judge Buxton, Judge Russel, Phil. Hawkins, Isaac Young and Judge Dick, would call their republican friends together and denounce this Holden, Kirk war, we should soon be rid of Kirk. Nothing operates upon Holden but the condemnation of his party. Let Pearson, Phillips, Barringer, Scott & Co. be held responsible for Kirk's outrages of every kind and character.

The men named above could have prevented Kirk's coming, and they can accelerate his departure. If they will not do so, let them be regarded as disturbers of the peace.

When another man is hung up or woman insulted by Kirk's men, we shall charge it to Pearson, Settle, Phillips, Scott, Barringer, Boyden & Co.

The Legislature of Georgia within two days, it is said, has added to the debt of the State for Railroads, nearly $85,000,000. Hope Littlefield had nothing to do with that business.

BENCH WARRANT CASES BEFORE JUDGE PEARSON.

STATE VS. WM. ANDREWS ET AL.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, Aug. 31.

James E. Boyd was sworn and deposed as follows: Lives in Graham; is twenty-five years old; was the Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives. Joined an organization known as the White Brotherhood in November, 1868, was initiated by Jacob Long; no one else in the room but Long. Up (Long) asked if I knew about the Ku Klux, said I heard they were in Tennessee. Long then said he could tell something of them here. Held up right hand and was sworn in. Swore not to reveal the secrets of the organization; never to reveal the name of the man initiating, never to vote for any party or person that favored giving political or civil rights to the negro; to protect each other; to assist a brother member when in distress and to protect the female members of a brother member's family. He understood from the nature of the oath that if a member was called into Court, either as a witness or juror, he would have to swear falsely in order to help a brother member or he would violate his oath as a member of the organization. [Here the witness proceeded to give the signs as before published.]

The officers were a Chief of a County, Chief of a Camp and a Lieutenant of each Camp.

He belonged to Camp No. 1. Jacob Long was the Chief of it. Long has fled. Bason his partner was the Lieutenant of the Camp. (Here the witness described the various grips as published before.) The Alphabet had been explained to him but he had forgotten it; named Robt. Hanner, George Ellington, Wm. Stally, and some others as members. Didn't know that Jno. Long was a member of the organization. Was initiated into the Constitutional Union Guard by Dr. Armstead Patterson and James A. Patterson. The only difference between the oath of the White Brotherhood and the Constitutional Union Guard was that the latter swore the member to obey the Constitution of the United States; understood it to mean the Constitution as it was. During the session of the last Legislature he called on Dr. Moore, at his room, at Mrs. Miller's, when Moore told him that he had something with which to supercede the Ku Klux; then gave him (the witness) the signs of the order known as the "Invisible Empire." (published before.) He (Moore) said he got them from Sam. Jones of Charlotte, and that Jones promised to send him (Moore) the obligation necessary to start the order in Alamance. Moore did not seem to know any more. Went that night to the Yarborough House and saw Jones, Durham and Jarvis in their room. Jones gave him the sign and he responded to it. Didn't know whether Durham or Jarvis were members; Moore said that nearly all the members of the Legislature were members. During the recess of the Legislature he got information that Shoffner was to be murdered on the 6th inst., for having introduced the military bill; talked with Dr. Moore about it and they both argued that it ought to be stopped; Moore said he would meet them and try to stop them; and he had learned that they were to assemble as Gilbreth's bridge about 18 miles from Graham. He (the witness) suggested that Moore should tell them that Shoffner was in Greensboro. Moore told him afterwards that he met them and recognized F. N. Strudwick, Abe Hedgepeth and James Bradshaw.

Jacob Long told him that Jno. T. Trollinger's camp whipped Caswell Holt, and that the same camp put the coffin in McAdams' room. Four out of the five arrested for whipping Holt were not members of the order.

His father was sick the night Outlaw was hung and did not go out, he and Dr. Murphy sat up all night with him. Didn't see any of them. Saw the body next morning hanging to an elm tree about 30 yards from the Court House. [Here the witness gave a description of the surrounding buildings.] After the hanging a petition was circulated to get up a public meeting to denounce the outrage; most of the Ku Klux signed it; he signed it. The United States soldiers arriving it was concluded not have the meeting. The day the soldiers came a young man by the name White came up to him and said, "I hear that they (the soldiers) have got the names of 16 or 17 of us who were out the other night, is it so?" Replied, did not know; suppose White was referring to the hanging of Outlaw. Don't know whether White is a member of the organization or not, but supposed he did by his question. After the arrival of the military, was sitting on Hanner's steps when Bradshaw said that they (the soldiers) had evidence against some of those that were at the hanging of Outlaw, and that he was present. Bradshaw has since fled.

Never heard anything attending the drowning of Puryear.

Understood the White Brotherhood and Constitutional Union Guard to be political organizations, belonging to the Conservative or Democratic party; understood they were to achieve party success by using all necessary means, that is, by terrifying and intimidating negroes.

There were some five or six hundred members in Alamance. The order was in a somewhat disorganized condition and he was told that the "Invisible Empire" was instituted to consolidate the different elements and have more regularity, and that nothing was to be done except through a regular channel.

The Chiefs of Camps had sometimes acted on their own responsibility. It was intended to turn out en masse on the night before the election and it was rumored that it was to be done in the other parts of the State. At Hillsboro', at the meeting of the Stockholders of the N. C. R. R. Co., Mr. Turner took him aside and asked about political matters in Alamance county, asked what were the political prospects; he (Boyd) replied that he thought the Democratic ticket would be elected by a good majority. He (Turner) said that he understood that the Ku Klux would parade the night before the election and notify the negroes not to come to the polls. He (the witness) said he did not desire such a thing in his county.—Turner then said that he would desire him (the witness) in his canvass neither to advise such a thing nor discourage it to say nothing on the matter. Never heard any one say anything about the death of Stephens. The organization was in Alamance, Orange, Chatham, Rowan, Rockingham and Guilford. Heard of camp being in Caswell just on the Alamance line.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Am 25 years of age, live in Graham, Alamance county born 1845, am a member of the legal profession, look upon it as an honorable profession, thought that none but honorable men should be admitted to practice, thought that an honorable man's word should be as good as his oath. [The witness was then shown the following card which he acknowledged to have written and caused to be published in the Daily SENTINEL, Thursday July 21st.

A CARD.

I learn that it has been reported on the streets in Raleigh that I had been liberated from my confinement by Col. Kirk because I had given information as to crimes committed in Alamance involving the guilt of other parties. I take this method of correcting this report. I have neither given nor promised to give any such information and possess none, such that I could communicate. I was liberated upon no such grounds but upon giving a bond for my appearance and keeping the peace prescribed by military authority.

JAMES E. BOYD.]

July 20th, 1870.

The White Brotherhood had no written Constitution. Repeated the substance of the oath. The by-laws only bound the initiated in a general manner to obey officers and no part gave officers a right to interpret the oath. When admitted to practice law took a solemn oath to [illegible] the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution and laws of the State; took the oath again when registering. Only Long was present when initiated into the White Brotherhood. After had become initiated began to think seriously that the oath just taken caused a violation of previous oaths to support the Constitution of the United States and that of the State. Always considered that I was bound by the oath taken on registering and when admitted to practice law. Did not attend but one meeting; did sever his connection with the organization as much as possible; could not come out directly and expose because was afraid of becoming a victim. Being a member, other persons would talk with him concerning matters connected with the order when he did not desire it. He and Bason became alarmed at the operations of the organization and consulted about breaking them up. Bason said he would see Long and get him to see the Chiefs and get them to break up, never knew whether he (Bason) did it. It was generally understood that the negroes should not vote if it could be helped. Nothing was alleged against Outlaw, he was hung because he was a politician; the statement published in the SENTINEL about his (Outlaw) having shot at the Ku Klux was not true. All were punished for reported offences. It was said that Calvin Holt was whipped for insulting a white lady. Did not know anything about Sellars. It was understood that the White Brotherhood was established to counteract the Union League; was understood so by the members.

Saw a commission, signed by Gov. Holden and countersigned by W. R. Richardson, issued to Outlaw to establish Leagues in the county; the commission was taken from the pocket of a negro named Scott. The Leagues were generally understood to be a secret political organization; certainly were a secret at first; though they made open demonstrations. Never heard of a camp in Caswell except the one on the Alamance line.

Dr. Moore told him that he saw the night he went to the bridge to stop them from going after Shoffner that he recognized F. G. Strudwick, Abe Hedgepeth and James Bradshaw, and that one said that he had come 40 miles.

A promise held out to him (witness) that if he confessed all he knew; the promise probably made by Governor Holden. Gov. Graham advised him to publish the card which appeared in the SENTINEL. Wrote the letter which appeared in the Standard addressed to the people of North Carolina; Gov. Holden read the letter before it was published; carried it into his office, he suggested no modifications; inserted the last paragraph at the instance of young Douglass, who came to me when writing the letter, and asked me to vouch for the existence of the order in the letter; wrote the letter in Douglass' room at the National Hotel; Douglass was employed in the Governor's office; believe he was acting as Adjutant General; wished to date the letter as coming from home, therefore did not date it from this place. The reason we did not expose these things was because we did not care about sharing the fate of Outlaw. Jacob Long had told him that the Ku Klux forced the jail in Hillsboro. James Patterson told him that the Constitutional Union Guard had a written Constitution.

RE DIRECT.

The commission issued to Outlaw, signed by Gov. Holden, to establish Leagues was two years ago, before he was Governor. The chief of the county was appointed by the man who introduced the order, one Obed Michael of Guilford. It was understood that Andrew Johnson was the National Chief. Heard there were some fourteen hundred or fifteen hundred members of the organization.

[Here the prosecution offered as evidence a small book, the ritual of the Union League, and were allowed to produce testimony in regard to it.]

J. W. Holden sworn and examined. Am a member of the Union League, am a member of the National Committee; have been a member of the League since the passage of the Reconstruction acts, (then the witness acknowledged the little book to be one of the rituals of the League.)

Three rituals have been issued; two have been distributed, have the third now in possession. Thought they differed only in ceremonies, but were the same as to the general object.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Belongs to the Heroes of America; but that organization has nearly died out, but did exist before the Leagues got a hold in the State. He thought the reason of the changes was because of the test-oath, and that the white men of the West did not wish to take in colored men. The organization was used during the war to run deserters across the lines; did'nt join until after the close of the war. The obligation was administered by the President of the Council. The Leagues are in existence, but not in general use. Gen. M. S. Littlefield was President, and J. H. Harris Vice-President. Do not know that Col. Henderson held a meeting of the Heroes of America this year in Davidson county.

There were means to call out the full vote of the Leagues, but no penalty for refusing but expulsion. The object of the League is to instruct the colored men of the South their duties as citizens. (Here the witness was shown a small book purporting to be the ritual of the "Heroes of America," bearing date of 1867. The witness acknowledged the book to be such and owned it to have been printed at the Standard office. The defence were allowed to offer the book as evidence.)

Dr. Jno. A. Moore, examined.

TO THE COURT.

Had no knowledge of having a conversation with Boyd in which I told him I recognized F. N. Strudwick, Abe Hedgepeth and James Bradshaw among the crowd going to Shoffner's, was not even acquainted with Strudwick or Hedgepeth at the time—met the crowd in Bradshaws lane; was directed to go to Bradshaw's to get him to assist him in stopping the proceedings against Shoffner; the party he met going towards the bridge promised him not to go to Shoffner's, but did not know who they would meet and the circumstances, so he wanted Bradshaw to go with me to the bridge. When I told B and saw about meeting the party he said: "I expect it is my friends Strudwick and Hedgepeth." Boyd's testimony was true in regard to Ham Jones giving him (Moore) the signs of the "Invisible Empire." Jones told him that he would send him the obligations &c. as soon as he could get them; never sent them. Jones said that the whippings and other outrages ought to be stopped and wanted a purely political organization. He (witness) had told all he knew of the "Invisible Empire;" didn't know that anybody was a member.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Would swear positively that he did not recognize a single person among them who he met in Bradshaw's lane. Bradshaw did not go with him to the bridge; he (witness) went then to his fathers.

On the conclusion of the examination of the last witness, the Court adjourned until 3 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, August 31.

Capt. Eli S. Euliss was sworn and testified as follows: Belongs to an order known as the "Constitutional Union Guards," was initiated at a private house in Alamance, in 1868, by a man by the name of Watts, said to be from about Egypt in Chatham county; was a stranger to me, never saw him before nor since. The obligation bound to secrecy, and to aid, patronize and encourage each other in preference to all others; to resist by force of arms, if necessary, any attempt, forcibly, to deprive members of the order of any of their constitutional and legal rights; to use all lawful means to defeat the Radical party; rally to the cry or sign of distress at all times, if possible. The By-Laws required, as a pre-requisite to joining, that the applicant must possess a good moral character.

Think that some time in June Daniel Foust told me that a party of about 60 men had started, last January, to Mr. Shoffner's for the purpose of murdering him, and had advanced as far as Gilbreath's bridge, where they were stopped by Dr. John A. Moore. James Patterson told me, on the Sunday before the murder was to take place on Tuesday, (some time early in January) that he had received information from the chief of Orange county, that Shoffner was to be killed. Patterson told me of it, and we concluded that it must be prevented; and it was agreed that I should induce Shoffner to go to Greensboro' with me that night, which he did; did not inform him why I wanted him to go there with me, until sometime afterwards. Heard that Col. Webb was the chief in Orange county, not of the "Constitutional Union Guards," but of some other order. Witness considers that he was the means of saving Shoffner's life, except for the fact of Dr. Moore's stopping them, of which I then knew nothing.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

The oath requires its members to patronize, aid and encourage each other; there is nothing in it requiring its members to do anything unlawful; it was a political association altogether; the object was to get as many into it as possible; was introduced into Alamance county just before the Presidential election; things the Constitutional Union Guard, the White Brotherhood and Invisible Empire were distinct organizations; don't think the Invisible Empire was ever introduced in Alamance; never heard of it until recently. The Constitutional Union Guard never called themselves Ku Klux; doubt whether there was ever an organization in the State that applied that name to themselves.

Foust told me at one time, that he had whipped for all the camps around him; he wanted us to whip for him, we told him we didn't do that sort of thing; never heard say anything about whipping Corliss nor that of Cas. Holt. Thinks there were class of Constitutional Union Guards in Randolph, Guilford, Orange and Chatham; it was understood to have originated in Tennessee by Gen. Forest; don't know whether it was considered a national organization, but thought it might be in the South; heard there were about 700 in Alamance; don't know whether this alluded to only one organization or all. The Constitutional Union Guard has not disbanded, but, like all the other organizations is declining; the meetings are very irregular; many never attend after joining; never saw more than seven or eight in a meeting.

Don't belong to the White Brotherhood; dont think there have been any whippings for twelve months in Alamance; have heard of none in that time; thinks none of the orgabizations have done much since the passage of the military bill; knows nothing of the whippings but what Foust told me, he said he saw them; I have not met our clan in nine months. Never heard of any whippings for politics, they were always for some charge of crime. A person belonging to one organization might belong to another, but there was no connection.

The Chief Justice then announced that it was the decision of the Justices that all the prisoners from Alamance whose cases have been examined, be held, each, in a bond of $2,000 to appear at the next term of Alamance Superior Court, except Redding and Thorington, who were discharged, and Dr. Tarpley whose case is held under further advisement.

Jas. E. Boyd was called and examined as to the character of Dr. Tarpley, and said; know Dr. Tarpley; know his character; it is good; he is a member of the Christian Church; is a very quiet man, not violent; is a very decided Democrat; is not considered lawless; is a member of the White Brotherhood; never saw him at a meeting, nor disguised.

Many church members of all denominations belonged to the organization; don't know any Episcopalian but myself who was a member.

Wm. Fogleman, Emsley Fogleman and Ruffin Fogleman gave the required bail; the others held under their former recognizance until they give permanent surety.

Court adjourned to 9 o'clock to-morrow morning; at which time, Mr. Badger announced, he would have a "car load" of prisoners here from Alamance.

THURSDAY MORNING, Sept. 1st

The Court convened at 9 o'clock. R. M. Stockard, Wm. M. Andrews, Ruffin Andrews and John Andrews, entered into recognizance to appear at next term of Alamance Superior Court.

Dr. Tarpley was required to enter into bond in the same amount to appear at the same time and place, and also in a bond of $10,000 to appear before the Chief Justice at Richmond Hill, whenever called upon, to be examined on a charge of murder.

Mr. Boyden called attention to an article in the SENTINEL of yesterday, in regard to the private examination of witnesses by the counsel for the prosecution of the Alamance bench warrant cases, and made an explanation in regard to the matter. He admitted and Mr. Badger confirmed the fact, that Boyd gave the sign by scraping his foot on the floor, &c., and that Mr. Badger went out with him and had a private talk. The statement in the SENTINEL in regard to the response of Mr. Fogleman when they wanted to give him a private examination, was not denied.

The Chief Justice asked what disposition would the prosecution make of the case of Adolphus G. Moore.

Mr. Badger said they had no evidence against Mr. Moore, except as to the general charge of his belonging to the organization; there was no evidence of a specific crime against him, and no probability of having any, consequently a nol. pros. was entered as to him.

The Chief Justice said the argument of counsel in regard to the legal status of the counties in insurrection, could be written and forwarded to him, as he wished to leave for home to-night.

Mr. Boyden then made a motion, o which he gave notice on Tuesday, that all members of these organizations be held equally criminal for the commission of any illegal act by any of them, if it be proved that the commission of the crimes was the purpose for which the organization was gotten up. This was the substance of the motion.

Mr. Boyden said he did not make the motion for the purpose, so much, of having any one bound over to answer, as to have a declaration of a rule of law that might act as a warning to people against going into such organizations.

The Chief Justice said these rules of law are never so forcible as examples and in order that an example may be made, he had bound Dr. Tarpley in a bond of $10,000 to appear before him in Chambers to be examined on a charge of murder.

In answer to the question, if any other cases were ready for examination, Mr. Badger said there were several brought down last night, but that the witnesses were not here, and probably would not be before to-morrow.

After some discussion it was finally agreed to recognize the prisoners to appear from day to day, here, or at Greensboro', before Justice Dick and Settle. The prisoners are Julius Somers, Daniel White, Daniel Patton, Wm. Lowe, Rankin Lowe, Wm. Tickell and Jeremiah Whitsett.

Mr. Badger then stated that there will be a general warrant taken out for all the a certained leaders of the organization in several counties, returnable at Greensboro' before one or more Justices of the Supreme Court.

The Court then took a recess until 3 o'clock, P. M.

THE REIGN OF LAW IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The citizens of North Carolina have shown sagacity in removing their grievances to a tribunal wherein Holden has no sway, and which has been rendered by the Constitution of the United States in a good degree independent even of the President. Judge Brooks has justified their confidence, and yesterday exhibited a determination to punish the perpetrators of the outrages which have been committed by the command of Governor Holden and the connivance of President Grant. One Lieutenant Bergen, a tool of Kirk and a creature of Holden, was committed to prison in default of the requisite bail. The courage of the judge of the United States court in incarcerating a subordinate instrument of tyranny is in refreshing contrast to the conduct of a judge of the State court in releasing a similar subordinate upon the ostensible ground that he was acting under orders but upon the real ground that the judge was eager to propitiate a tyranny. When the real authors of an outrage are either undiscoverable or unassailable, to refuse to punish the immediate instruments of it is to let it go unpunished, and to mock the sufferers by it who are suitors for justice. This was the case in North Carolina. But it is now established, thanks to the uprightness and the intrepidity of the judge who yesterday imprisoned Bergen, that the doing of an illegal act in North Carolina, as in all other regions governed by law, is at the peril of the man who does it. That is to say, if the principle of this decision and action can be maintained, law will hereafter prevail over the anarchy which has for many months prevailed in North Carolina.

That it can be so maintained, the report of yesterday's proceedings gives us no reason to doubt. In fact, nothing in them is more curious than the suddenness with which the whole bubble has burst, when a man was found in high judicial station bold enough to puncture it. If there had been that honor among the oppressors of North Carolina which is said to obtain among thieves, the whole resources of the gang would have been at the service of any member of it who might have been caught and proceeded against for his share in the joint enterprise. Instead of this, there has been a consentient and enthusiastic abandonment to his fate of the unfortunate victim by his comrades, which is not at all in the nature of an encouragement to others who may hereafter be tempted to follow in his footsteps. Bergen has committed crimes in the company and at the instigation of many men much richer and much more powerful than he. Bergen is accidentally taken and they are accidentally left. Thereupon there is not found one of them poor enough to do Bergen reverence or rich enough to go Bergen's bail, and Bergen is "committed in default." There are not likely to be any successors to Bergen to do the bidding of Kirks and Holdens, with such a prospect ahead by way of indemnity and reward. It reminds one of the story of the Polynesian queen who manifested her conversion to Christianity by overturning an idol and expectorating thereon, whereupon all the late worshippers of that object set to work to deface and demolish it. Judge Brooks has kicked over the North Carolinian Mumbo Jumbo, and it is at once seen of all North Carolinians and other men to be as impotent as it is ugly.

It is not very pleasant to think that, if Judge Brooks had been as dependent upon the Federal Executive as was Judge Pearson upon the State Executive, he would not have had countenance in doing the righteous thing which he has done. There is no reason to believe that Mr Grant views the proceedings of Mr. Holden, if indeed he knows anything about them, with any other sentiment than a stolid sympathy. It is because Judge Brooks has not, and needed not to have, the fear of President Grant before his eyes, that he has been able to oppose what it is hoped may be an insuperable obstacle to the continuance of a course of atrocities which could never have been begun without the criminal connivance or the equally criminal carelessness of the President of the United States.—N. Y. World.

GOVERNOR HOLDEN—COMING TO GRIEF.—The New York Times of Friday says; "The tactics adopted in North Carolina by Gov. Holden and his adherents, previous to the recent election, seems to be in a fair way to recoil damagingly upon them. Several of the parties arrested by Col. Kirk and his officers have sued out writs against them, upon which they have been arrested. It is to be hoped that the cases will be thoroughly investigated by the Judiciary, and every case of willful illegality and defiance of the law severely punished. The Republican Party cannot afford to become the apologists of such questionable proceedings as were reported to have been had, and for its sake, as well as for the sake of vindicating the law, we trust that an example will be made of every individual who has usurped the rights of a single citizen."

The hottest Summer for ninety-two years is that of 1870, by the records of Yale College. From July 10 to August 15, 1870, the mean daily temperature was, at New Haven, 85; and no season since 1778 has shown so many consecutive hot days. The highest temperature was (July 17) noted at 98 degrees, and this has been exceeded only four times during the period above indicated, at New Haven, the thermometer rising to 100 degrees one day each year in 1784, 1800 and 1845. In 1798 it reached 101. We fear the heat is not yet over.

The first bale of new cotton was received in Newbern on Tuesday by Messrs. Bountree & Webb. It was raised by Mr. E. B. Cox of Catharine Lake, Onslow county.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 100,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the cotton Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint. It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported in two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28 inches; wt. Bale 400 to 500 lbs.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

READ CERTIFICATES BELOW.

PITTSBORO', N. C., May 6th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612). I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 16th, 1870.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the plan upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully, JAS. R. WILDER.

RIVER LAWN, CUMBERLAND Co., N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq: Dear Sir.—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. H. BLOCKER.

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hy. Press I have seen.

Respectfully, R. H. FOOTE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 13th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

ANOTHER CHANGE.

On account of the change in the schedules of the mail trains, arriving at and departing from this city, we have found it necessary, in order to furnish the latest telegraphic and other news, to change the hour of our Daily publication. While the present schedule continues, we shall issue both a morning and an evening edition. The morning edition will contain the night dispatches and latest news by mail, for the Northern and Eastern routes; and the evening edition, the noon dispatches and latest news for the Western route.

Our city subscribers will, hereafter, be served with the morning edition; at least until another change of Railroad schedules.

ACROSS THE STREET.—Prempert has removed his Barber Shop across the street, from his former place under R. B. Andrews' Clothing Store, to the office recently occupied by the Registrar in Bankruptcy, under the Raleigh National Bank, where he has fitted up things in "apple-pie order," for the benefit of his customers.

A. H. GALLOWAY.—We understand that a telegraphic dispatch was received here this morning that A. H. Galloway, the colored Senator elect from New Hanover, is dead. We did not learn any particulars in regard to his death.

EXPLANATORY.—We announced, a day or two ago, that one Major Whittemore, who has been connected with the Revenue here since the war, had gone the way of all carpet baggers, and left several little momentoes, in the shape of unpaid bills, for his friends to remember him by.

Sheriff Lee called on us yesterday and stated that Whittemore left on account of the illness of his wife, and that he informed his creditors before leaving of his intention of going, and made the best arrangement he could for paying what he owed here. Sheriff Lee further stated that Whittemore would, in a short time, remit the amounts yet unpaid, and if he did not do so in sixty days, he would pay them himself.

A squad of United States soldiers arrived in Newbern on Tuesday, on their way to Fort Macon to deliver a batch of prisoners. When the freight train, on which they arrived, reached Dover Station, the Sergeant in command, got off, and when the train moved on he was left behind. The detachment waited in Newbern during the day for the missing officer to come down on the mail train, but he failed to do so, and the soldiers went on to the Fort. At last accounts the Sergeant had not turned up.

COMING! COMING! NEW GOODS COMING We notice that several of our merchants are getting in advance, supplies of Fall and Winter goods, which, by the mere glance we have been able to give them, appear to be very pretty. The Messrs. Tucker & Co., R. B. Andrews & Co., Creech, and perhaps others in the Dry Goods line, and the Confectioneers and Fancy Goods dealers, have been getting in boxes; call and see them.

For the Sentinel.

BOOK WANTED!

MR. EDITOR:—I wish to suggest to some enterprising young man in Raleigh, the propriety of getting up at the very earliest day, a full and authentic history of the Holden Kirk war. Containing the judicial records in the case, and if possible to secure the learned argument of the distinguished counsel who appeared in the case. The records might now be gotten together as they are transpiring. A few embellishments, as lithographs of the different heroes of the war would add to its interest. It is certain that this book would be eagerly bought by the people and would be an invaluable source of information, on contemporary history.

MAKING RESTITUTION.

Judge Kerr's case has been restored to him, and the Judge himself restored to his wife and children. If it affords any gratification to the Governor, he is now informed that his long imprisonment of Judge Kerr fell heavier upon Mrs. Kerr than upon her husband. Perhaps it is proper to inform the Governor that our pistols have not been returned, nor our Barlow knife, nor our linen, nor either of our coats, nor our blanket borrowed of our friend Lindsay at the Shops, nor our white handle knife, a present from a friend in Yanceyville while in prison. We did recover one cake of our soap after this manner. On Wednesday our soap was stolen out of our prison room, where Chicken Stephens was murdered.—Capt. Franklin and a special guard of seven men occupied the room with us. We said nothing, but got Nelson, one of the guard from East Tennessee to buy us another. By the by, Nelson said he was cousin to Hon. Tom Nelson of his State. Next morning our new cake of soap was missing. Nelson said he saw the acting Adjutant of the regiment with his hand on the soap the night before. Others of the guard corroborated the statement. Captain Franklin said he would go and get it. We demurred and insisted on buying another cake of soap. The Captain went to the room of the Adjutant and returned with one cake of brown Windsor. So the Governor is to be credited with the return of Judge Kerr's cane and one cake of soap.—Give us honesty as well as "peace."

OFFICIAL VOTE FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL. The returns of the official vote for Attorney General were found on examination this morning to have been made so imperfect, that we learn the Council adjourned until 4 o'clock, P. M., to have an argument before proceeding to decide the vote. No return was made from Caswell County. Gates County was returned for Phillips 3744 and for Shipp 4356, making about 7000 more votes than the County casts. McDowell, Person, and Rockingham are all imperfect in their returns. If these are thrown out, Mr. Shipp's majority will be reduced considerably.

THOS. J. WOMACK.

Mr. W. sends us the following contradiction over his own signature in addition to the denial we made at the time:

CASWELL CO., N. C., Aug. 26th, 1870.

GOV. HOLDEN:—The return on the writ in my case, Thomas J. Womack, "discharged by the Governor on confession" is a false return. I made no confession, knew nothing to confess, though held as a criminal in prison for weeks by the Colonel of the so called State troops.

Respectfully,

THOS. J. WOMACK.

MESSRS. GRAHAM AND BRAGG.

These two gentlemen have become the food upon which Holden's malignity daily feeds. It is their virtues that afflicts our "cussing beloved." They have no vices, and therefore, Holden sees nothing in them to admire or praise.

GOT HIS REWARD.—W. H. Bailey, a Radical lawyer in Salisbury, has been appointed Code Commissioner vice Vic. Barringer, which Judge Pearson declined to accept. It suits Bailey. He is quite an admirer of the New York Code as furnished to hand by that State for North Carolina, judging from what he wrote in the Old North State about it and other things. The General Assembly, we hope, will make laws that will not need three lawyers to put them in such shape as that no one will understand them, as at present, at such a heavy expense. The Commission should be quashed at an early day, as well as the Code, and our old statutes revised should be restored.

THE ALAMANCE CASES.—From indications before the Justices this morning, the investigation of the Alamance Ku Klux cases will close here to-morrow, to be resumed, (day not named,) in Greensborough. We are glad of it for our own sake and for the sake of others, especially the readers of the SENTINEL. We begin to feel our health improving already, in view of the respite from labor that awaits us. We hope to get a long breath or two after to-morrow.

IMPROVING.—We should judge that many persons are sleeping on bedsteads, lounging on sofas, sitting on chairs, eating from tables, to say nothing of babies rocked in cradles, from Frap's furniture establishment, South east corner of Fayetteville and Davie Streets—we say we judge so, from the fact that he has commenced to renovate and repair the old house and make it look "maist gude as th' new," in other words, he is making the outside appearance to correspond more with the stock of elegant furniture inside.

The Shivering Season.

The loss to the laboring classes of the United States caused by fever and ague, has been estimated at upwards of two millions of dollars per annum. Whole settlements are sometimes prostrated by the disease, and it is regarded in some localities, as one of those visitations of providence which cannot be avoided. This is a mistake. As certainly as any of the evils which are invited by neglect may be forestalled by precaution—so certainly may an attack of intermittent (or remittent) fever be prevented by invigorating the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in advance of the season, at which this malady prevails. Prevention, it is needless to say, is the wisest policy; but it is consoling to know that where time has not been thus taken by the forelock, and the paroxysms have actually commenced, a complete cure may, in all cases, be rapidly effected by the use of this powerful vegetable tonic. The reputation of the Bitters as a specific for dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation and nervous debility, has in some measure thrown into the shade its merits as a preventive and cure of other ailments, but all who have ever taken it, either as a protection against or a remedy for malarious fevers, will admit that it surpasses in efficiency all the so-called specifics (including quinine,) usually prescribed for these maladies, while it is at the same time entirely harmless and decidedly palatable.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Wednesday Night Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, August 31.—Passenger traffic between London and Calais is stopped.

The splendid Strasbourg library was destroyed during the bombardment.

VERSAILLES, Aug. 31—Official.—The advance of the 14th Prussian army corps and a portion of the 5th French corps were engaged near Noeral. No details.

The railway between Mezieres and Thionville is destroyed at two points by the Prussians.

The London Times says MacMahon is attempting to reinstate upon Soissons, having failed to relieve Bazaine.

The mails, only, are carried between Paris and London.

PARIS, Aug 31.—The Ministers of the Interior, Agriculture and Commerce officially visited Auvergne. A Committee of Defence has been formed at Havre.

A late Tours journal says that Prince Napoleon is residing there.

The French clergy are moving actively in the defence.

A scarcity of water is apprehended for a few days, caused by the necessity of filling the Paris moat.

The Patrie says, the nephew of Bismarck who recently wanted to raise a legion of Hanoverians has been arrested as a spy.

BERLIN, 31.—The National Garzite has the following: "The neutral Powers are corresponding actively, but the only result reached is that each Power must keep the others advised of movements. It is evident that intervention is contemplated, though Prussia regards the movement as too late. The invention or intervention is almost exclusively announced from Vienna and Florence. Prussia objects emphatically to the course of Italy. Italy is threatened with complications requiring the undesirable solution that she is forced to fight or accept great sacrifices, rather than let neutral powers profit by our troubles. All the powers of the earth shall not stop us half way in a war of self-preservation.—England also, has broached the intention to intervene but never meant armed intervention. The interests of Europe demand the cessation of all such attempts."

LONDON, August 31.—There is great excitement among the French regarding the alleged sympathy of the Protestants with the Prussians.

Troops have been leaving Paris all day for the north. The Emperor is reported ill at Sedan.

The Prussians will find MacMahon very strong. The Prussians have only stopped small detachments of the reinforcements sent him.

MacMahon preserves in the attempt to attack the besiegers at Metz.

Strasbourg will probably capitulate in 5 days, the fortifications are manned daily to accustom the soldiers to the situation.

Thirty thousand sick and wounded have returned from the front.

Four hundred French Arabs who were captured and taken to Germany, have escaped and returned to France.

Telegrams from Paris are exultant, claiming that the Crown Prince is 36 hours behind, and calculating that the Prussian Staff cannot arrive in time to make a junction with Frederick Charles.

BOUSSAUCY August 30th, via London.—The Prussians attacked MacMahon's army today near Beaumont, defeated it and drove it back upon the Belgian frontier. The French camp fell into the hands of the Prussians. The pursuit of the French, continued for several miles, was interrupted by the number of captives and the quantity of provisions taken. The extent of the battle field was so vast that it is impossible to obtain further details at this moment.

PARIS, August 31.—The Moniteur says, many of the Prussians expelled from the city were actually plotting against France.

Prussian uniforms were found in the house of the suspected persons. The expelled Germans have given false reports of their hardships.

The Moniteur is authorized to contradict the statement regarding armed ships leaving American ports in the Prussian interest.

A battle has taken place between Dun and Stenay with no important results.

BERLIN, August 31.—At Meetings of Notables, an address to the King was adopted protesting against intervention. Germany is willing to consider all to William in establishing peace, not again to be wantonly broken.

Thursday Evening Dispatches

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Sept. 1.—No news of a decisive battle, nor is it believed that one has been fought.—MacMahon simply telegraphs that he has crossed the Meuse without harassment. Other accounts say that there has been heavy fighting by detached parties of MacMahon's and Prince Charles' armies with alternate advantages.

To-day the Public says that there was no fighting yesterday. The government, however, has good news. MacMahon's march has been undisturbed. Pallikao warns newspapers against publishing important pending movements. Bazaine has won several small engagements.

The La Liberte says that Austria pledged herself to move on Prussia simultaneously with France if subsidized by Ollivier, the then Minister of France, but the money was not paid.—Austria pressed the matter on France, when Ollivier said "go on we will fight without you."

Minister Washburne contradicts the rumor of vessels leaving United States ports to prey on the French.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—An unverified rumor says that MacMahon is crossing the Meuse at Stenay and pushing for Montmedy and that he has six hundred guns. A collision between him and Frederick Charles is expected.

The Garde Mobile, on the new requisition of one hundred thousand are hurrying to the defence of the capitol. The Press of Paris admits the spuriousness of dispatches.

Should the French Emperor cross the Belgian frontier, the Belgians will demand his sword.—Other severe orders have been issued for the purpose of guaranteeing Belgian neutrality.

Bavarians after returning home disbanded.—A meeting occurred among Bavarian Landwher. The Independance Belge of Brussels of yesterday says: while MacMahon was on the heights of Vaux on Tuesday, advancing on Montmedy he was attacked by the Germans and flung back with dreadful carnage. This region of country is absolutely depopulated. This corresponds with the Prussian accounts of an action near Beaumont reported last night.

No additional details of MacMahon's defeat yet received.

VIENNA, Sept 1.—A telegram denies that Bazaine has ever been caged in Metz, another battle reported at Armegray on the 30th ult. no particulars or report of the result.

BERLIN, Sept. 1.—Telegraph lines are still in confusion. Dates from the seat of war, particularly those from Beaumont, require verification.

BOULTON BELGIUM, Aug. 31.—A fearful battle was fought yesterday and to-day. Yesterday morning MacMahon commenced a general movement towards Montmedy and was attacked near Beaumont and driven, after a stubborn resistance towards the Belgian frontier, the Prussians capturing a large amount of camp stores, and driving the French from position to position until night. The battle was renewed early next morning and continued all day. During the night large French reinforcements came up but failed to turn the scale of victory. The Prussians were also reinforced largely and attacked overwhelming numbers. MacMahon retreated to Sedan with the remnant of his forces. The slaughter was immense. It is impossible to estimate loss. The Prince Imperial is said to be in Belgium. The populations are flying in great terror.

BOULTON, BELGIUM, 8, A. M.—Last night after dark MacMahon withdrew towards Sedan concentrating in a strong position, during fight in the battle of yesterday, the Crown Prince of Saxony captured ten thousand prisoners.

A number of French soldiers escaped into Belgium, and were promptly disarmed.

It is rumored that Bazaine attacked Stermets yesterday; result unknown.

CHOLERA.

HOW TO CURE IT.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot, if convenient) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Asthma, cures in one night, by taking it internally, and bathing with it only. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KILLER.

Directions accompany each bottle.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

Prices, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1869.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivaled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

Mowry, Ganger and Inspector Coal Oil Philadelphia; Evans, Stone & Davis Dealers in Petrolium 104 Arch St., Philadelphia.

Testimonials without number from citizens of this, as well as those of other States might be published, but the above is sufficient. Any person having the light can make 8 to 10 bbls., of the Fluid in an hour.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mehegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. We honestly think two boxes of Mehegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Outhouse.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consol'd with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company, in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserves and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
